

Introduction to Scientific Writing

Certificate of Completion

Awarded April 2017

Irina Anatolievna Pelevina

Has successfully completed a four-week open online course offered by the American English Institute, University of Oregon

This online course requires approximately 20 hours of work, including lessons on: grammar and vocabulary; sentence combining; paragraph development; citations and references; paraphrasing and quoting; academic style and conciseness.

PLEASE NOTE: This certificate does not verify the identity of the student. The online course does not reflect the entire curriculum offered to students at UO, or confer any UO grade, credit, enrollment, or degree.

Instructor:

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

American English Institute
aei.uoregon.edu

Introduction to Scientific Writing

Congratulations on your success with Introduction to Scientific Writing. This 4-week MOOC from the University of Oregon required about 20 hours of work. Your course certificate is attached.

The course that you completed required students to:

- Watch videos
- Study lessons
- Take practice quizzes
- Participate in discussions
- Pass an exit quiz

The topics covered were:

- Sentence structure
- Adverb placement
- Verb tenses and scientific writing
- Connecting sentences
- Building paragraphs
- Academic style and conciseness
- Vocabulary choices in scientific writing
- Quoting, paraphrasing, and avoiding plagiarism
- References and citation formats

You can keep in contact with the University of Oregon at:

- <http://uoregon.edu>
- <http://aei.uoregon.edu>
- <https://www.facebook.com/universityoforegonamericanenglishinstitute>

Best regards from your course instructor,

Char Heitman

